

How science works

Words to find:

association,
categorical, causal,
chance, continuous,
control, dependant,
independant, ordered,
reliable.

Use the words you find to complete this passage:

What is the variable that you change in an investigation? _____.

What is the variable that you measure? _____

A variable best described by a label _____

A variable that can be placed in order _____

A variable that could be measured _____

If your investigation gives the same results each time it is _____

A variable we do not change _____

Links between variables can be _____, by _____ or by _____