

Solids, liquids and gases.

Words to find:

close, compressed, container, fixed, gas, liquids, move, spread, squashed.

Use the words you find to complete this passage:

Solids have a _____ shape and cannot be _____ or squashed because the particles are _____ together and have no place to move.

_____ take the shape of their _____. The particles are close together and can _____ around each other but they cannot be compressed.

The particles in a _____ move in all directions and _____ out to completely fill their container. Gas particles are far apart and so they can be _____.